Inside The Numbers

Doheny, a big underdog, actually landed more power punches than Inoue in two of the seven rounds fought. He landed 26 body punches on Inoue, and kept Inoue at bay for much of the early portion of the fight. Inoue landed 31 body punches, and sensing Doheny weakening, he threw a fight high 61 punches in the sixth round, landing 30 power punches. Doheny seemed to hurt his leg at the end of the sixth round, and after absorbing 4 additional power punches in the opening seconds of the seventh round, Doheny waived off the fight due to injury.
