Inside The Numbers

A big 12th round for Davis where he landed 10 punches and had Kelly clinging on to survive was not enough to swing the fight in Davis' favor. The last round was Davis' best round, and Kelly's worst, and it made the final stats look closer. Kelly was the busier fighter, and landed more punches in the majority of the rounds. One judge scored it a 114-114 draw, and the other two judges scored it 115-113 and 115-114 for Kelly.
