Inside The Numbers

Mason, who had never been knocked down in his career, tasted the canvas for the first time about a minute into the first round. After getting back on his feet, Mason returned the favor 30 seconds later, knocking Vasquez down. As Mason opened up to finish Vasquez off, Vasquez caught Mason again, scoring a second knockdown. Mason survived, and targeted Vasquez's body in the second round. This paid dividends for Mason, as Vasquez went down from a body shot and did not get up. The final stats reflect a fire fight, as Vasquez landed 47% of his power punches, while Mason landed 57% of his. In the second round, Vasquez landed 50% of his power punches, while Mason landed 73%.
