Inside The Numbers

Just when it looked like Gallegos was seizing control of the fight in the third round, Gonzalez landed a counter right that put Gallegos down for the first time in his career. Gallegos beat the ten count, but had to hold on to survive the rest of the round. From the fourth round on, Gallegos out-landed Gonzalez 138-58. Gallegos ended the fight with a 60-14 edge in body shots landed, and a 122-64 edge in power punches landed. The judges scored the fight 98-91 and 97-92 twice- all for Gallegos.
