Inside The Numbers

Clark hit the canvas twice in the fourth round, absorbing 18 power punches from Massey in the process. He survived, and though Massey continued to out-land him 20-14 over the fifth and sixth, Clark was quietly finding a home for his right hand. It paid off in the opening minute of the seventh — he cracked Massey flush and sent him to the canvas. This time, there would be no surviving the count. Clark swarmed with power punches until the referee stepped in at 1:24, with Clark having connected on 12 of 20 power shots in the round — a blistering 60% accuracy rate.
